WHEREAS, City Defendants object to the production of those documents unless appropriate protection for their confidentiality is assured,

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED, by and between the attorneys for plaintiff, City Defendants, and Jamaica Hospital Medical Center, Dr. Isak Isakov, and Dr. Lilian Aldana-Bernier (collectively referred to herein as “Co-Defendants”) as follows:

1. As used herein, “Confidential Materials” shall mean all documents and the information contained therein relating to personnel of the New York City Police Department (“NYPD”), other than plaintiff in this action, except where otherwise specified in subsection (a), including, but not limited to, (a) files maintained by the NYPD’s Internal Affairs Bureau (“IAB”) and Brooklyn North Investigations Unit (“BNIU”) with respect to any investigation into alleged misconduct by any member of the New York City Police Department, including but not limited to plaintiff; (b) files maintained by the NYPD’s Quality Assurance Division (“QAD”) with respect to any investigation, including but not limited to plaintiff; (c) internal and external Equal Employment Opportunity complaints and any related investigation; (d) personnel files and the information contained therein including, but not limited to, information regarding, promotions,

2. Documents and information are not Confidential Materials to the extent that they (a) are properly obtained by plaintiff from the City defendants herein, or (b) are otherwise publicly available.

3. Neither plaintiff, plaintiff’s attorney, nor the Co-Defendants or their attorneys in this matter shall use the Confidential Materials for any purpose other than for the preparation or presentation of plaintiff’s case or defendants’ defense in this action. In addition, any party may use the Confidential Materials for cross-examination or impeachment purposes, and Confidential Materials may be used in support of, or opposition to, any summary judgment motions, provided that the Confidential Materials are appropriately redacted for ECF filing, pursuant to the provisions of paragraph 6, infra.

4. Neither plaintiff, plaintiff’s attorney, nor the Co-Defendants or their attorneys in this matter shall disclose the Confidential Materials to any person except under the following conditions:

- a. Disclosure of Confidential Materials, including, but not limited to those files maintained by the NYPD’s IAB, BNIU, QAD, or Office of Equal Employment Opportunity with respect to any investigation into alleged misconduct, including but not limited to plaintiff, and any EMD, personnel, investigative, and/or disciplinary files and/or materials may be made only to plaintiff's and/or Co-Defendants' attorneys or a person(s) specifically employed by plaintiff's and/or Co-Defendants' attorneys only if necessary to the preparation or presentation of plaintiff's and/or Co-Defendants' case in this action.

- b. Disclosure before trial of Confidential Materials may be made only to an expert who has been retained or specially employed by plaintiff's and/or Co-Defendants attorneys in anticipation of litigation or preparation for this action, to a witness at deposition, or to the Court.
- c. Before any disclosure is made to a person listed in subparagraph (a) or (b) above (other than to the Court), plaintiff and Co-Defendants shall provide each such person with a copy of this Stipulation and Protective Order, and such person shall consent in writing, in the form annexed hereto as Exhibit A, not to use the Confidential Materials for any purpose other than in connection with the prosecution or defense of this case and not to further disclose the Confidential Materials except in testimony taken in this case, or attached to motions, affidavits or declarations submitted to the Court, which have been redacted for ECF filing pursuant to the provisions of paragraph 6, infra. The signed consent shall be retained by plaintiff's attorney and/or Co-Defendants' attorneys and a copy shall be furnished to City Defendants' attorney within ten (10) days.

5. Deposition testimony concerning any Confidential Materials which reveals the contents of such materials shall be deemed confidential, and the transcript of such testimony, together with any exhibits referred to therein, shall be separately bound, with a cover page prominently marked "CONFIDENTIAL." Such portion of the transcript shall be deemed to be Confidential Materials within the meaning of this Stipulation and Protective Order.

6. If any paper which incorporates any Confidential Materials or reveals the contents thereof is filed in this Court, those portions of the papers shall be delivered to the Court enclosed in a sealed envelope bearing the caption of this action, an indication of the nature of the contents, and the following legend:

CONFIDENTIAL

This envelope contains documents or information designated confidential pursuant to an order entered by the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York in the above-captioned action. 7. Within thirty (30) days after the termination of this case, including any appeals, the Confidential Materials, including all copies, notes, and other materials containing or referring to information derived therefrom, shall be returned to City defendants' attorney or, upon their written consent, destroyed, and all persons who possessed such materials shall verify their return or destruction by affidavit or certification furnished to City defendants' attorney; plaintiff's and Co-Defendants' attorneys shall represent that all Confidential Materials have been returned; provided that notes and other materials that are or contain the work product of attorneys may be retained. However, any such retained work product shall remain subject to the provisions in this Order and shall not be used by plaintiff's counsel and/or Co-Defendants' counsel in any other case against the City of New York, its agencies or its employees and the same shall be verified to City defendants' attorney.

8. Nothing in this Stipulation and Protective Order shall prevent plaintiff's counsel from making an application to the Court in the matter of Stinson, et al. v. City of New York, et al., 10-Civ.-4228 (RWS), for disclosure of materials that would otherwise be subject to this Protective Order.

9. Nothing in this Stipulation and Protective Order shall be construed to limit City defendants' use of the Confidential Materials in any manner.

10. Facsimile signatures herein shall be consider as original signatures.
